THE HOLIDAYS.—The approach of the Holiday season becomes evident by the preparations to be seen on every hand. Rev. Mr. Badger, Rector of the Episcopal Church, has made provision for a Christmas tree in the church for the benefit of the children of his congregation, and such others as may desire to join the festivities. Mr. O'Dougherty, principal of the public school, has an eye to the amusement as well as the instruction of his pupils, and so has arranged for a Christmas tree in the School House this evening. Diamonds, jewelry and fancy goods suitable for Christmas presents, are found in great variety. Wm. Manning lends out with a full assortment of diamonds, jewelry, watches, rings, etc. P. Heintzelman also has a supply of just such articles in the jewelry line as would answer for a Christmas present. J. Rosenthal has on hand a fine lot of jewelry, watches, chains, rings, etc., purchased especially to supply the demand for such articles at this season. In the way of fancy goods, Mrs. Ward, on Lacour street, is able to satisfy the most fastidious taste; Folk & Levin have a fine assortment of books, diaries, and other nice gifts; James Finlayson is on hand with everything in the gentlemen's furnishing line, as well as ribbons, dress silks, laces, etc.; H. Michaels has Havana cigars which are wanted to be as good on Christmas as on any other day; H. Solis has a great variety of articles, including turkeys and game, and just such things as every family requires at this season. For confections and other delicacies, the reader is invited to call at the Swiss Confectionery, or at Jacob Barrett's, foot of Picoe street. For toys and trinkets for children, go to the Postoffice Variety Store, or drop in at twenty Aubrey's, Upper Meadow Valley street. At the drug stores of Alexander, of Bishop & Lee, and of Burrage, may be found perfumery, and many fancy articles, which would do very well for Christmas presents. C. Weidnerhold is in receipt of many valuable books, diaries, stationery, cigars, etc.

ATTEMPT AT THEFT.—On Sunday evening, after dark, some individual, with an audacious and energy which ought to be turned to a better account, came near getting away with a heavy blanket coat which was hanging in front of H. Lewis's store, on Main street. The fellow watched his chance, and finding the clerk in the back of the store, took the coat from the rack on which it hung, but the rack jostled against the door and attracted the attention of the clerk, who ordered the fellow to stop, but he ran, and being hotly pursued, dropped the coat, and it was recovered. The fellow made the best race we have had to record for some time, but in his flight he lost his hat, which was picked up on Main street. He made his escape.

CHRISTMAS TREE IN THE SCHOOL HOUSE. A Christmas tree has been set up in the District School House, for the especial benefit of those who have attended the school during the past term. Mr. O'Dougherty, the principal, or Mrs. Wilmarth, assistant, will be in attendance at the school house until 4 o'clock this afternoon to receive any presents that parents and friends may desire to contribute. The occasion promises to be a pleasurable one to the little folk, and we hope none will be disappointed.

FELL IN A FIT.—On Sunday night, between 9 and 10 o'clock a man named Brown, a German and a carpenter by trade, fell in a fit on Main street, in front of the Philadelphia Brewery. Quite a crowd gathered around him, and it was with difficulty that he was kept under control. He was finally taken into the Brewery and a physician called. After he was sufficiently restored to admit of his removal he was taken to a lodging house.

HUGH O'NEIL ALL RIGHT.—On Saturday a rumor was circulated through town to the effect that Hugh O'Neil, well and favorably known in Picoe, had met with a fatal accident at or near the 15-mile House, on the Hamilton road. We are happy to state that the rumor had no foundation in fact, and that Mr. O'Neil is all right.

LODGINGS.—Notwithstanding the great influx of strangers, the various lodging houses in town are ample for the accommodation of all. J. Wagner's lodging house is located high up on Main street, remote from the noise and confusion witnessed in other localities, and is a good place to obtain tired Nature's sweet restorer.

RARE SPORT.—A race between three men, each of whom has had the misfortune to lose a leg, and is provided with one of wood, is on the carpet. Christmas day is the time set for the forthcoming race, but as one of the men is a little out of order at present, he may be withdrawn by his backers.

CORRECTION.—In two notices of the Picoe Phoenix on Sunday, by mistake the name of Peter Farrell was used in place of Henry Ferrell. It is one of those little mistakes which are annoying to the parties interested, and we can do no more than correct it.

Tax Empire Spring. Bedstead is a new patent, and is very ingenious. The bedstead shuts up like a jack-knife, leaving a handsome wardrobe or book-case. The bed, together with blankets, pillows, pillow-cases, sheets, etc., cost $250. For sale by H. Ward.

THERE can be no clearer understanding of the social, moral, financial and political situation, than a good pair of boots, and we beg to intimate that Woodruff & Murphy are still making the best. Shop on Meadow Valley street.

A STORM is now daily looked for. First heavy winds and lowering clouds, then yesterday morning a cold rain or sleet. Rain or snow either is liable to fall at any day.

INFORMATION is wanted of Capt. Hunt, who left Picoe in May last for Arizona, with a company of men. Address A. D. Jones, Record office, Picoe. Exchanges please notice.

WM. GREEN, who was struck on the head last Friday, remains in the County Hospital, but his injuries are not serious, and he will soon recover.

POCCHES THEATRE.—Last night a full house greeted the management on the occasion of the first appearance of Mr. John Maguire. Owing to the fact that all the arrangements for a proper presentation of "The Bells" had not been completed, it was deemed advisable to defer this play until this evening, when it will be presented in such a manner as to give full effect to all its parts. Instead of "The Bells," the comedy of "The Siamese Twins" was given, and well received by the audience. Mr. Maguire also recited "Shamus O'Brien" with good effect. Lorraine made many good hits in his Dutch connections, and the company generally did well. "The Bells," in three acts, will constitute the principal attraction this evening.

HANDSOME CHRISTMAS PRESENT.—Messrs. Kennard, Clark & Co. called at our office last evening and presented to the corps typographical a good supply of champagne, liquor and cigars. The champagne was of Cook's manufacture, St. Louis, Mo., a very superior article, which took the premium at the Paris Exposition over all other American wines. The whisky was the very best Kentucky article, six years old, and was unexceptionable. The cigars were first-class Havanas, and are equal to any to be found in the United States. All hands in the Record office return thanks to the donors for their courtesy and attention, and hope they may enjoy prosperity in their business.

ARRESTED.—Yesterday afternoon a fellow by the name of McAvoy, who only recently got out of jail, signaled his advent into the free air of heaven again by imbibing immense quantities of fluids which sadly interfered with his powers of locomotion. This was nothing strange, and if he had stopped there he would have fared better; but he made an indecent exposure of his person, and he was at once pounced upon by officer Boyd and escorted to jail. It is not unlikely that he may spend his Christmas within the walls of the county prison.

PERSONAL.—H. M. Maguire, an old California printer, and subsequently editor of the Pick and Plow, a newspaper at Bozeman, Montana, is now sojourning in Picoe. He is well known throughout the northern country. Having heard of what a lively camp Picoe is, he has come to see for himself, and we are happy to say that he expresses himself highly pleased with the outlook. He is not now connected with any newspaper enterprise; nevertheless we extend to him a fraternal greeting.

NEVADA STATE LOTTERY.—The object of this lottery is to raise the means for building an Insane Asylum in this State. It has been extensively advertised, and we learn from exchanges, that tickets have been sold rapidly, and no doubt the whole number will be disposed of before the day for the drawing comes around. It is now announced that the drawing will take place on the 1st day of February, 1874. For a list of prizes, etc., see advertisement.

AN ASSAY OFFICE.—Mr. T. R. Butler has now the entire supervision of the office that formerly belonged to Gen. A. L. Page. He has all the paraphernalia for melting bullion, two large scales capable of weighing 3,500 oz. All work done promptly and at rates reasonable.

S. ASHIM & BRO. comprehend the situation, and are not afraid of using too much printer's ink in letting the public know that their stock of clothing, blankets, rubber goods, hats, caps, groceries, etc., is fully up to the requirements of the times.

TO ARRIVE TO-DAY.—The following passengers left Hamilton yesterday for Picoe, who will arrive on to-day's stage: J. Peters, A. Hohner, Miss Troiler, Miss K. Moore, M. Cortnee, Wm. Brown, Mrs. Smith and daughter and A. Goddard.

C. M. TRAVIS, late of Montana, a brother of W. S. Travis and a wide-awake man in the livery business, is stopping in Picoe, taking a view of the situation and figuring on its future. We hope he will conclude to remain here.

NEW HEARSE.—W. Ward, the undertaker, has just received a splendid new hearse from the establishment of Crane, Broad & Co., Cincinnati. It is a superior piece of workmanship, and cost delivered in Picoe, $1,350.

CALICO BALL.—A grand calico ball will be given this evening at Concert Hall. Cards of invitation have been freely issued and it is expected that those who attend will have a high old time.

KENNARD, CLARK & CO. Meadow Valley street, open to-day their superior stock of wines, liquors and cigars. They have a large supply, and have invested about $25,000 in the business.

JOS. R. FEHLER & CO. have opened an office on Main street as auctioneers, commission brokers and real estate agents. See advertisement.

LETTER LIST.—Owing to the crowded state of our columns, the publication of the list of letters remaining in the post-office is deferred till to-morrow.

HOGLE & GILBERT are established at the Wells, on the C. P. Railroad, in the forwarding business. See card.

INCREASE OF FOLK AND LEVIN'S BUSINESS.—In order to satisfy the great demand of the public for a complete circulating library the above firm saw fit to order 500 volumes of the best known standard works, which will arrive here in course of next month, comprising histories of all known countries, lives of the most eminent men, speeches by Daniel Webster, Henry Clay, Grant, Macaulay and others, Cicero's orations, American eloquence, American oratory, ancient classics, travels, etc. In addition to the circulating library, they also keep on hand a very large stock of stationery of all kinds, school books, varieties and imported cigars and tobacco. A splendid assortment of toys, music and plain albums and diaries for 1874 are also to be found at the above place. Main street, opposite Wells, Fargo & Co's.
